COMMODORE'S COMMENTS, February 2011

The Installation and Awards Dinner was fabulous. Thanks to all that came (51 attended). A special thank-you to Marla Brown, to John Walker for his humorous awards presentation, and to Craig and Jan Ryan for the beautiful trophy display. Also, thanks to Susie and Darilyn for greeting and collecting money , and to Staff Commodore Dale King for installing the officers. We are off to an excellent start for 2011.

The next dinner meeting is Feb 9 at the Long Beach Yacht Club. Hope you will come. I would like to have your input and ideas on how to get new members and yacht clubs to join us. I will bring a promotional flyer for you to hand out to prospective members and post at your yacht clubs.

The Season Opener will be held March 5 at the Long Beach Yacht Club. We should invite prospective sailors and power boaters to join us on our boats. Our message might be "Come along for the ride and stay for the party and dinner". Some of us could also co-captain with them on their boat (however, only one captain can receive points).

See you Feb 9 and March 5

Daryl Creighton

VICE COMMODORE'S COMMENTS, February 2011:

A special thanks to all participants and supporters on the tremendous 2010 season of Predictive Log competitions. Now it's on to 2011 and another serving of serious and safe fun.

I know that we will all make a special effort to support Commodore Daryl Creighton's expressed desire to grow our sport through attraction of new participants.

I would like to suggest that each of our members print a few copies of each Skipper's Log and put them in the information rack of each represented Yacht Club. There are certainly many potential participants who simply do not know about our interesting and educational sport. Let's let them in on our secret (cruising with a purpose). Where else can we have so much fun practicing the things that every skipper should know about operating his vessel

Also, remember to refer prospective participants to the web site.
